(TL:GEN-1043; 07-22-1987)

(State Only)

The Department of State has been designated as the agency to receive applications for international organization immunities. The Secretary of State has been authorized to require such information as the Secretary of State may deem necessary from applicants for the privileges conferred by the International Organizations Immunities Act, and to recommend to the President whether the applicant organization should be designated by Executive order as a public international organization entitled to enjoy the privileges, exemptions, and immunities conferred by the Act.

2 FAM 1422 PROCESSING OF APPLICATIONS FOR IMMUNITIES

2 FAM 1422.1 Review of Applications

(TL:GEN-1043; 07-22-1987)

(State Only)

The Bureau of International Organization Affairs (IO) shall review all applications of international organizations desiring privileges, exemptions, and immunities to ensure that they satisfy the announced requirements for consideration by the Department and it shall determine the eligibility of international organizations for such benefits.

2 FAM 1422.2 Drafting of Executive Orders

(TL:GEN-1043; 07-22-1987)

(State Only)

The Bureau of International Organization Affairs shall draft the necessary Executive orders and shall submit recommendations to the Secretary for the Secretary's approval and transmittal to the President. The Bureau of International Organization Affairs shall submit one copy of each proposed Executive order to the Office of the Chief of Protocol.

2 FAM 1423 INFORMATION AND LIAISON

(TL:GEN-1043; 07-22-1987)

(State Only)

a. The Office of Protocol maintains the records of individuals accorded privileges, exemptions, and immunities pursuant to the International Organizations Immunities Act.

b. The Bureau of International Organization Affairs shall maintain complete records of international organizations accorded privileges, exemptions, and immunities pursuant to the provisions of the International Organizations Immunities Act (59 Stat. 669): shall serve as the center of information and services for the administration of the Act; and shall act as liaison with other Federal agencies concerned with the execution of the Act.
